

Easter At Coker Luke 24:1-12

Introduction

Easter is the focal point of the Christian faith. It is the events of Easter that demonstrate the lengths that God is going to in order to redeem his people and restore his relationship with them. Without Easter, we are still hopelessly separated from God in our sin, but thanks be to God, that is not the case. He is Risen! Christ is risen indeed!!

Discussion

- What is your favorite Easter memory?
- What are some of your family's Easter traditions?

Going Deeper¹

- Read Luke 24:1-12. What stands out to you in this passage?
- What is the most intriguing part of this passage to you?
- Which part of the passage do you struggle with the most?
- Put yourself in the group hearing the story from the women (vs. 9), do you think you would have believed them?
- What do you think was Peter's first thoughts when he saw that Jesus was not in the tomb (vs. 12)?

Application

- How does the resurrection effect your daily life?
- How would you like the resurrection to play a larger role in your life?
- What one step can you take closer to Jesus this Easter season?
- How can we be in prayer for you?
