

Keep These Words Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Introduction

The Bible is complex collection of books that give us a picture of our God, his character and how he has acted in history to bring about our redemption. There are different genres of writing, different audiences and all of it works together under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to guide God's people in life and faith.

Discussion

- Are you a reader? Why or why not?
- What is your favorite kind of reading (novel, article, fiction, non-fiction, etc.)?

Going Deeper¹

- Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9. What stands out to you in this text?
- Why is this the prelude to the giving of the law?
- What do we learn about God in this text?
- What is the significance of verses 6-9?
- How does the story told in Genesis and Exodus help the people accept the law given in Leviticus and Deuteronomy?

Application

- What is your big takeaway from this text?
- Do your interactions with scripture look like what is described in verses 6-9?
- Where would you like to grow in your study of the Bible?
- What can you do this week to engage the story of God in the first five books of the Bible?
- How can we be in prayer for you?

¹ Scripture references are from the NRSV.