Merciful God, you made us and called us good before we had done a single thing. We confess that we hide the tangled places of our lives, and that we try to earn what you give freely. Forgive us. Unravel what is not yours, mend what is broken, and weave us into the people you created us to be. Help us rest in the love of Jesus, who stands in our place. We pray this in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen
